Meet the Breeds is a valuable resource to a potential pet owner who is searching for the right kind of dog for a particular lifestyle.

Volunteers from the Tennessee Valley Kennel Club will present many breeds from the common to the exotic.

Which breed is for you?

Come take advantage of this unique chance to meet many different dog breeds - up close and in person. Breeds will be presented by Tennessee Valley Kennel Club members - each an expert on their breed.

Each breed will be showcased in it's own space. You can visit and chat about each breed's characteristics and its unique attributes as a family pet. Our club members can share information about responsible dog ownership and finding the right breed for you and your lifestyle.

You can also pick up information on where to find dog training classes in the Knoxville area.
